

ANIMAL FARM

Chapter 3:

The animals of the farms starts working in things like the harvest and other tasks and snowball gives education to the animals then its discover that the milk and the apples are only for the pigs because it helps them make their brain run and prevents mr jones from returning

Chapter 4:

In this chapter the rebellion spreads to the other farms and the animals starts resisting with this mr jones tries to get his farm back but fails this day on animal farm is called the battle of the cowshed

Chapter 5:

In this chapter snowball wants to build a windmill but napoleon opposes later they make a meeting to decide if build it or not in the moment napoleon realize he is gonna lose he frees 3 trained dogs to exile snowball with this the power all the power is now for napoleon now deciding to build the windmill anyways

Chapter 6:

Napoleon makes the animals work really hard to build the windmill even making them work on sundays also trading with the humans and now sleeping in the beds on the farmhouse while all of this happens the pig squealer confided the animals that they are doing nothing wrong but one day a storm destroys the windmill. after thi napoleon blames snowball for doing that and being a traitor